Context
UN Women, grounded in the vision of equality enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations, works for the elimination of discrimination against women and girls; the empowerment of women; and the achievement of equality between women and men as partners and beneficiaries of development, human rights, humanitarian action and peace and security. Brazil ratified key human rights treaties such as the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW), the Belem do Para Convention, and the Convention on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (CERD). Brazil is also signatory of key normative human rights and development instruments such as the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action, the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action and the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. In September 2015, Brazil joined the international community in the adoption of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, committing with the implementation of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), including SDG 5 “Achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls”. Despite significant progress in the past decades, Brazil continues to witness extremely high rates of feminicides, intimate and domestic partner violence, and sexual violence. Afro-descendant women are more vulnerable and tend to report or seek help less often. Under notification is a reality and only part of the cases is brought to the public health system. As part of the United Nations Country Team (UNCT), UN Women continues to push for key opportunities to promote gender equality and women’s empowerment through strengthened coordination. The new United Nations Sustainable Development Partnership Framework (UNSDPF) 2017-2021 has 5 axis that corresponds to the 5 Ps of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development (people, planet, prosperity, peace and partnerships), specifying the need to include commitments with gender and racial equality in all of its results. The CO continues to lead the Inter-Agency Thematic Group (TG) on Gender, Race and Ethnicity and to support the implementation of the work plan for the International Decade for People of Afro Descent 2015-2024, as well as to boost the Secretary-General's UNITE to End Violence Against Women Campaign.
